

Job advertisement

Title: Production operator

Location: Munich, Germany

Company: nanotools GmbH

Your opportunity

- Support our team in the production of cutting edge scanning probes
- Operate and control production machines, i.e. scanning electron microscopes and various pre- and post-processing tools
- Perform material handling, quality control for release of final products, and optimize production processes and flows
- Control and update technical documentation
- Working hours: 40h per week in 2-shift operation (Mon.-Fri.)

Your profile

- Basic technical knowledge, technical education is a plus
- Willingness to learn how to use and operate demanding production equipment; no previous experience required
- Basic IT knowledge, esp. standard office productivity software; MS Office
- Good knowledge of English and/or German
- Striving for constant improvement
- Strong team thinking and ability to work independently